

Rubbish separation made easy!

Coloured and clear glass	Metal	Paper and cardboard	Plastic and composite material	Electric appliances	Bio-waste	Hazardous waste	Bulky waste	Non-recyclable waste

Yes please - mixed or clear glass	Yes please - metal	Yes please - paper or cardboard	Yes please - plastic	Yes please - electric appliances	Yes please - bio-waste	Yes please - hazardous waste	Yes please - bulky waste	Yes please - non-recyclable waste
Hollow glass containers like bottles, flacons, food jars, cosmetics bottles, glass ampules... Please carefully separate clear and coloured glass and remove the tops. Ensure that no returnable bottles are included - these should be reused.	Tin cans, drinks cans, steel cans, aluminium foil, drinks bottle caps, (scraped clean and drip-free only) paint and varnish tins, completely empty spray cans (containing no pressurised gas)	Paper: newspapers, magazines, brochures, mail shots, notebooks, books, writing paper, catalogues, window envelopes, uncoated and clean paper Cardboard (please fold): boxes, corrugated cardboard, cartons, kraft paper bags	Plastic sheets, drinks/coffee/vacuum/deep-freeze packaging, rinsed out empty containers from cleaning and cosmetic products Composite materials e.g. tablet packaging. Styrofoam (separate collection sensible) Please ask your local authority.	Large electric appliances like washing machines and dishwashers, fridges and freezers, TVs, computers and monitors Small electric appliances e.g. toasters, mobile phones, phones, electric razors, radios, calculators... Energy-saving light bulbs, fluorescent light bulbs, batteries	Fruit and vegetable remains, rotten food and food leftovers, eggshells, coffee grounds and filters, tea leaves and teabags, cut flowers, wood shavings, charcoal and ashes, garden waste	Used oil, batteries, solvents, nitro-cellulose combination thinner cosmetics, dyes and paints, mercury, disinfectants, photo chemicals, medicines, acids, alkaline solutions Please put used cooking oil and fats in oil collection.	Household rubbish that won't fit in the non-recyclable rubbish container due to its size/ shape, broken furniture, carpets/rugs, sports equipment, skis, pushchairs/ prams, scrap wood and scrap iron For undamaged furniture and objects - please ask your local authority about re-use collections.	Waste that cannot be recycled: broken porcelain and ceramics, cigarette stubs, ashes from charcoal stoves, vacuum cleaner bags, toothbrushes, coat hangers, tights, disposable nappies, toiletries, broken toys, light bulbs, MCs/video cassettes
No thanks - coloured or clear glass	No thanks - metal	No thanks - paper or cardboard	No thanks - plastic	No thanks - electric appliances	No thanks - bio-waste	No thanks - hazardous waste	No thanks - bulky waste	No thanks - non-recyclable waste
Lids, caps, porcelain, earthenware bottles, ceramics, glassware, drinking glasses, bulbs Window panes, mirror glass, wire glass (separate collection sensible)	Composite materials spray cans and gas cartridges etc. that are not completely empty Pots, pans, household scrap metal - goes to communal scrap metal collection	Deep-freeze packaging (coated), carbon paper, cellophane, wallpapers, paper tissues, paper tissues, drinks packaging	Anything that doesn't count as packaging: e.g. broken toys, toothbrushes, coat hangers, tights, music and video cassettes, CDs	Toy train sets (tracks, carriages) car racing tracks (road) CDs, audio tapes, video tapes, toner cartridges, greetings cards (with sound)	Artificial cat litter, vacuum cleaner bags, disposable nappies, cigarette stubs, hazardous waste, non-recyclable waste, ashes from coal-burning stoves, all packaging	Scraped clean, drip-free and rinsed out empty dye, paint, cleaning product containers etc., count as packaging and must be disposed of accordingly.	Non-recyclable waste, rubble, hazardous waste, cardboard packaging, electronic appliances, oil radiators and fridges/ freezers are collected separately in all areas.	Waste that can be recycled! This includes waste items like wearable clothes and shoes, all packaging and bio-waste and electric appliances and hazardous waste.